Have a great day ladies

As usual I am sorry if I left someone out. Waiting for updated membership list as the dues come in

It was a great time at our first schooling show of the season at Soaring Eagle. Our schooling shows are known for being relaxing and laid back. What better way to introduce new riders and new horses to the sport. Joan Potter and Barbara Sutton are the dynamic duo that run most of our schooling shows and once again they did a great job. Thank you to others who helped as well. The rings don't magically put themselves up and the tests don't score themselves. We count on all the volunteers.

Also thank you to Jessica Combs for taking pictures at the schooling show. If you see her at shows introduce yourself. Her pictures are great and she is very reasonable. She also sent me pictures from the Regionals. Many people did awesome and some are headed to Nationals.

Here is Carol Smith and Yorum J At their first Regionals. Jessica Combs is the photographer of all the pictures in this newsletter
